St Mark's Mission Statement

To promote a loving, caring, Christlike Community which accepts all people. And inspired by the Holy Spirit to spread the good news of Jesus Christ.

1st Reading: Isaiah 45: 1. 4-6 I have taken Cyrus by his right hand to subdue nations before him.

Psalm: 95: 1. 3-5. 7-10 Give the Lord glory and power.

2nd Reading: Thessalonians 1: 1-5 We constantly remember your faith, your love and your hope.

Gospel: Matthew 22: 15-21 Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God.

Reflection

In this Sunday's Gospel, the Pharisees and Herodians attempt to trap Jesus with a political dilemma: "Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar, or not?" Instead of falling into their trap, Jesus responds with a profound truth: "Repay therefore to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's."

Jesus asks to see the coin used to pay the tax and points out that it bears the image and inscription of the Roman Emperor. If the coin bears Caesar's image, it can be returned to Caesar. But Jesus invites us to look deeper: if the coin belongs to Caesar because it bears his image, what belongs to God?

The answer is found in the creation story in Genesis where we are told that we are made in the image and likeness of God. While a coin bears the image of an earthly ruler, we bear the image of our Creator. We belong to Him entirely: heart, mind and soul.

This Gospel challenges us to examine our priorities. In a world constantly demanding our time, attention and allegiance, are we giving more of ourselves to "Caesar" – our careers, screens, possessions or worries, than we are giving to God?

There is another lesson in Jesus' response. Knowing they were trying to trap Him, He does not respond with anger or ego, but with clarity, wisdom and truth. When we encounter disagreement, we too can choose dialogue over conflict and seek truth rather than simply proving ourselves right.

Ultimately, the invitation is simple: remember whose image we carry and look for that image in others. We encounter Christ in His Word and in the Sacraments, but also in one another. When we truly love God and love our neighbour, we begin to recognise the face of Christ in those around us.
