St Mark's Mission Statement

To promote a loving, caring, Christlike Community which accepts all people. And inspired by the Holy Spirit to spread the good news of Jesus Christ.

1st Reading: Exodus 22: 20-26 If you are harsh with the widow, or with the orphan, my anger will flare against you.

Psalms: 17: 2-4. 47. 51 I love you, Lord, my strength.

2nd Reading: Thessalonians 1: 5-10 You broke with idolatry and became servants of God; you are now waiting for His Son.

Gospel: Matthew 22: 34-40 You must love the Lord your God and your neighbour as yourself.

Reflection

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reminds us of the two greatest commandments: to love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul and mind, and to love our neighbour as ourselves. While these commandments are familiar to many of us, they serve as an important reminder of what it truly means to live out our faith.

At St Mark's, we are blessed to have a diverse community of people from all walks of life. We may come from different backgrounds, cultures and experiences, but our faith brings us together as one community in Christ. Our differences should not divide us, but instead remind us of the richness of God's creation and the importance of loving and welcoming one another.

In our first reading from Exodus, God reminds the Israelites to show compassion towards foreigners and those who are vulnerable. This reinforces Jesus' message that loving our neighbour means looking beyond our differences and recognising the dignity of every person.

Similarly, in our second reading, Paul celebrates the Thessalonians for the way their faith has become an example to others. We are reminded that faith is not simply something we profess, but something we demonstrate through our actions and the way we live each day.

It is often in the ordinary moments of daily life that these commandments are put to the test. We can become impatient with another driver on the road, annoyed with a colleague who makes a mistake, or take out our frustrations on the people closest to us. In these moments, it is easy to focus on what others have done wrong and forget that the person before us is also made in the image of God.

Jesus is asking us to look beyond the mistakes of others and to seek Christ in everyone we meet. To love our neighbour as ourselves means offering the same patience, kindness and understanding that we would hope to receive.

We may know these commandments well, but we all need reminders to put them into practice. As we go about our daily lives, may we remember that loving God is inseparable from loving one another, and may our actions reflect the love of Christ, both within St Mark's and beyond our church community.

Complete the Gospel

Fill in the blanks to complete the Gospel from Matthew 22:34-40.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law, tested him by asking, Teacher, which _____ in the _____ is the _____? He said to him, You shall _____ the _____, your _____, with all your _____, with all your _____, and with all your _____. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The _____ is like it: You shall _____ your _____ as _____. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.
