St Mark's Mission Statement
To promote a loving, caring, Christlike Community which accepts all people. And inspired by the Holy Spirit to spread the good news of Jesus Christ.

1ST Reading: Proverbs: 31: 10-13. 19-20. 30-31 A perfect wife – who can find her?
Psalm: 127: 1-5 O blessed are those who fear the Lord.
2ND Reading: Thessalonians 5: 1-6 Let not the day of the Lord overtake you like a thief.
Gospel: Matthew 25: 14-30 You have been faithful in small things; come and join in your master's happiness.

Reflection

Before moving to New Zealand, I had a promising career. But when our family started growing and raising our four boys, I made the difficult decision to give up my career and become a full-time mother. It wasn't an easy sacrifice. I struggled with letting go of my career and worried about how we would manage financially on a single income.

At that time, I didn't fully understand what God wanted from me. But looking back, I realise that God was calling me to a different kind of vocation—to nurture our children, build a loving home, and most importantly, pass on the gift of faith to them and be a support to my husband.

The woman described in the first reading reminds me of this beautiful calling. I know I am far from the ideal woman portrayed in Proverbs. I have my weaknesses, shortcomings, and moments of doubt. Yet, I have come to realise that God doesn't need me to be perfect. He simply asks me to be faithful with the gifts He has entrusted to me.

Over the years, I have also tried to share these gifts in my own little ways—through St. Mark's Parish, our children's schools, and Couples For Christ communities. But sometimes, I recognise myself as the third servant in today's Gospel. There are moments when fear, complacency, or staying within my comfort zone prevent me from doing more. I forget that God has given me these gifts for a purpose and that His grace is always enough when I take that first step.

Today's readings remind me that our gifts are not measured by worldly success or great achievements, but by how faithfully we use them to love and serve others.

Looking back, I now see that giving up my career was not giving up my purpose. It was discovering a different purpose God had prepared for me. And if there is one legacy I hope to leave our four sons, it is the gift of faith—a faith they will carry in their hearts and someday pass on to their children and their children's children. Perhaps that is my greatest calling and my most meaningful gift to God.

Gigi (Jemima) Bulay
